- Community Housing Network
 - Housing Resource Center
 - When you call the HRC, a trained housing specialist will conduct an intake screening. They will ask you questions about your goals, your current housing situation, your household, your income, and more. Your answers will help the specialist know what resources to recommend for you, including:
 - Community resources and programs that provide housing assistance
 - Affordable housing options
 - Information on subsidized housing and other long-term housing options
 - Homeownership Program
 - Homes are 100% move-in ready, up-to-date, and energy efficient
 - Each homebuyer receives homebuyer assistance, based on their personal financial situation
 - Homebuyer Assistance is a zero-interest, zero-payment second mortgage with the county, that is not due until the home is sold or ceases to be the owner's primary residence.
 - Community Housing Network suggests residents complete the CHN Homeownership Initial Eligibility Screening:
